OFFICE OF
WORKERS' COMPENSATION JUDGE
HELERA, MONTANA

IN THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION	I COURT OF THE STATE OF MONTANA
DALE REESOR,)
Petitioner,) WCC No. 2002-0676
VS.	RESPONSE TO PETITIONER'S
MONTANA STATE FUND,) CLAIM FOR COMMON FUND) ATTORNEYS FEES
Respondent/Insurer.) ATTORNETS FEES

Comes now Respondent, MID CENTURY INS. CO., by and through counsel of record, and pursuant to this Court's Summons and Notice of Attorney Fee Lien of April 22, 2005, answers Petitioner's claim that a common fund exists in the above entitled action.

ANSWER

- 1. A common fund does not exist in this case because the purported non-participating beneficiaries of the decisions in this case and in Reesor v. Montana State Fund, 2004 MT 370, 103 P.3d 1019, 325 Mont. 1, are not ascertainable.
- A common fund does not exist in this case because the decisions in this case and in Reesor v. Montana State Fund, 2004 MT 370, 103 P.3d 1019, 325 Mont. 1, are no more than favorable precedent to future litigants seeking permanent partial disability benefits under Montana's Workers' Compensation Act.

- 3. A common fund does not exist in this case because the process of identifying unascertainable beneficiaries places an impermissible and undue burden on insurance companies who wrote workers' compensation policies in Montana.
- 4. A common fund does not exists in this case because the participating litigant, Dale Reesor, did not create, preserve or increase an identifiable monetary fund or benefit in which all non-participating beneficiaries maintain an interest.
- 5. In the event that a common fund is found to exist in this case, the identified beneficiaries are liable for payment of the attorneys' fees and not this answering respondent.

WHEREFORE, MID CENTURY INS. CO. respectfully requests this court to issue an order denying the existence of a common fund in this case.

Dated this 2 day of June, 2005.
